

Classroom Teacher Rubric

The Raymond School District has selected the Charlotte Danielson Framework for Teaching 2013 Evaluation Tool as the classroom teacher performance rubric. There are several ways for you to obtain a copy of this rubric, but due to copyright requirements, the district has selected two methods for all classroom teacher to have direct access to the rubric:

- In each school library there are five hard copies of the rubric that can be signed out. If there are additional copies needed, please request through building principal
- Go to the Danielson Group's website page: <http://danielsongroup.org/download/?download=448>
 - Enter your name, email and position
 - Once you select the submit button, you will have access to download a PDF version of the Framework For Teaching 2013 Evaluation Tool which is our classroom teacher rubric.
