

GILE HOME. Built in 1850 on 50 acres, the old Martin Gile home is located on Old Batchelder Road (today 5 Gile Road). The Gile school building can be seen under the tree at the right of this view on its original site. At one point, this was Joseph Mandile's poultry farm. It was also James and Blanche Clement's poultry farm from the 1930s to mid-1940s. This was just one of many chicken farms in Raymond at the time. (Courtesy of the Raymond Historical Society.)
