D. Overview and Explanation of Duties:

Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment _____ Information

Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment (CIA) are interrelated and are at the foundation of all public schools strive to accomplish. At the same time, members of the general public have little understanding of the importance of these things in terms of school quality and school improvement. Dr. Mike Whaland has been asked to highlight and clarify his duties as Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment in the context of the CIA process in general. E. New/Revised Policy - First Reading _____ Discussion

JH Student Absences and Excuses

In the fall, this policy had come before the Board for revision. At that time, the Board requested that our building principals review the policy together and offer suggestions for additional revisions. They've worked together to bring you the proposed policy this evening for first reading. All three principals are invited to provide commentary or clarification regarding this updated version for your consideration.
