8:30 PM H. Consideration of Waiving Class Size Policy IO For Selected RHS Courses _____ Action

As you know, the development of the course schedule and teacher assignments is a multi-step process. At this point, students have enrolled and shifted around to a great extent. It is important to note that numbers will continue to change slightly until just after the school year begins. We would like the Board to consider whether or not it will waive the requirements of our Class Size Policy IO for for the upcoming school year for selected classes. Those courses we would like to discuss are highlighted in yellow.

8:45 PM I. Policies - Annual Review _____ Action

As per policy, Policies DFA and DFA-R are required to be reviewed annually by the School Board.

8:50 PM J. New/Revised Policies - First Reading _____ Discussion

JIC Student Conduct (Revised Policy)

From NHSBA: "Policy JIC was revised to reflect 2020 amendments to RSA 193:13. Among other things, those amendments largely are designed to effect greater emphasis on the emotional and academic needs of students through support and intervention strategies prior to using exclusion from school through suspension and expulsion. The amendments also (a) limit the duration of long-term ("LT") suspensions to 20 days, (b) limit the reasons a student may receive a LT suspension, and (c) require districts to adopt separate standards for short term suspensions of <5 days, and those of >5."

JICD Student Discipline and Due Process (Revised Policy)

From NHSBA: "Policy JICD was revised to reflect 2020 amendments to RSA 193:13, which Policy JIC was revised to reflect 2020 amendments to RSA 193:13.
