

Principal's Quarterly Report to the Raymond School Board

Steve Woodward, Principal, Raymond High School

2017-2018, 3rd Qtr Report, May 2 , 20018

Highlights	*College &amp; Career Fair: On Wednesday, April 4, 2018, we held our annual RHS College &amp; Career Fair. This event featured over 30 representatives from colleges, industry, and the military. Kudos to Tricia Wentworth for organizing this wonderful event. *Music Trip: On Wednesday, April 11, 2018, RHS musicians traveled to Philadelphia, PA and participated in learning clinics at the University of Delaware with Dr. Lauren Reynolds and Dr. Paul Head. The trip also included tours of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania Dutch country. *Spring Sports We currently have 105 students participating in baseball, track, softball, and unified track. *Unified Track: We are fielding our first ever RHS Unified Track Team and they have already attend their first meet. The activity is totally funded by a grant we received from the NHIAA.
Acknowledgements	*CBE Team: I would like to acknowledge all of the hard work that Kevin Federico and Brittany L'Heureux have done to ensure that RHS has a professional looking report card and is ready to take the next steps towards Competency Based Education. Additionally, the meetings and feedback I have received Bob Bickford, Bryan Belanger, and Mike Whaland have been beneficial. *Starfish Award: This is given to a teacher each quarter who goes above and beyond to connect with students in the classroom. This quarter, the award goes to Josh Forkey. Spirit Week: I would like to thank Liz Koch and the RHS StuCo for organizing a the event this year. Events included a pie in the face raffle, hall decorating contest, basketball tournament, theme days, and fun and games. *Thank You: We're grateful for the support of the Tuckaway Tavern, Hannaford's, Ben Franklin-Ace, and The Lobster Boat Restaurant in Exeter for their generous support for the Class of 2018 on their Senior Class Community Service Day.
Updates	*Competency Based Grading: Individual departments have received the rubric for our Work/Study Practices and will be meeting to tweak the rubric for their specific needs. The process will be completed before teachers depart for the summer. This week, I am meeting with each grade level to discuss what our report card will look like and the concepts behind the RHS Work/Study Practices. The following week, I will be meeting with the 8th graders to inform them as well. *NEASC: Our NEASC Liaison, Allison Greary, met with various groups on April 3. During this time she set up NEASC Committee Chairs with access to the NEASC Portal. She indicated that we were actually ahead of schedule and in good shape regarding the upcoming NEASC visit in spring of 2019.

	*2018 - 2019 School Year Schedule: We are preparing to spin the master schedule for next year. All students have been registered and teaching assignments are largely finalized.
Challenges	*Monday Schedule: We reviewed two options for Monday. The RHS Site Council is currently reviewing the options and will make a recommendation. Once this is done, we will present our solution to the RSB.
