

Principal's Quarterly Report to the Raymond School Board

Sharon M Wilson, Principal, Raymond High School

2022-2023, 2nd Qtr Report, Feb. 15, 2023

Highlights	*Report Cards: Report cards were issued on Thursday, January 26, marking the end of Q2. *RHS Rotary Breakfast: Randy Lacasse spearheaded a wonderful annual RHS Rotary Breakfast. This was a wonderful event that invited the community into our building. The halls were filled with music and the smell of an incredible breakfast. *RHS Winter Instrumental Concert & RHS Winter Choral Concert: It was a magical night being entertained by our incredibly talented students. I Am College Bound Day took place November 7th. Representatives from local colleges, trade and career were on hand to meet with students and to process applications. Many students were accepted on the spot and it was an inspiring day.  National Honor Society: It was an honor to participate in the induction of our newest group of honor society members December 6th 2022. Ten students joined our existing Twin Oaks Chapter. *Socks for Tots: During the month of December, the RHS Sunshine committee collected 170 pairs of socks which were donated to the local Head Start Program.
Acknowledgements	Student Recognition Award: Under the leadership of Elaine Verne, students who demonstrate high character are nominated and voted on by staff. Student winners can use a reserved parking space and are recognized during morning announcements. Thank you Elaine for your hard work in celebrating our students who go above and beyond. Teacher Recognition: Nominees- Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching - Sandra Swiechowicz. New Hampshire Counselor of the Year - Patricia Wentworth
Updates	*Curriculum Work: Assistant Principal Joanne McCann is overseeing curriculum work in the areas of competency development with the RHS faculty. *Course Selections: Course selections for the 2022-2023 school year will begin the week following break. The change in timeline has been intentional to allow us to make better decisions for our students based on credit attainment. Thanks to the School Counseling Office and our Team Leaders for the work they put into the RHS Program of Studies. *Scheduling: The Scheduling Committee will be reviewing and discussing proposals prior to February break with a recommendation to the Superintendent. The conversations have been rich and I'm proud of the hard work done by all. *Grading Committee: Dean of Students, Paula Oliveira and the RHS Grading Committee have been reviewing priorities and assessing needs.

Challenges	*Para Coverage: We continue to have openings for paraprofessionals. This puts a strain on our coverage of students and special education services. *Substitutes: We have a very small number of substitutes to provide coverage when teachers are out due to illness, bereavement or personal responsibilities. I'm grateful for the professionalism of our staff who consistently step up to fill the gaps, but it is a struggle.
