

Principal's Quarterly Report to the Raymond School Board

Steve Woodward, Principal, Raymond High School

2017-2018, End of Year Report, June 27, 20018

Highlights	*Celebration of Excellence: On Thursday, May 24, 261 awards were distributed to underclasses during our Celebration of Excellence this year. Congratulations to all of our students who were recognized for their excellence in the classroom. *Prom: The Class of 2019, hosted the prom at The Oaks in Somersworth on June 1. Over 140 guests attended and it was a wonderful evening complete with fireworks display. *Senior Night: On Wednesday, June 6, 2018, we assembled to celebrate and reminisce with with Class of 2018. 149 awards and recognitions were given to seniors this evening. *Graduation: On Friday, June 8, 2018, 86 seniors graduated from Raymond High School. It was a wonderful ceremony and we wish the Class of 2018 the best of luck in their future endeavors. *Beyond High School: Every senior received a copy of "Beyond High School: A Guide to Your Rights and Responsibilities." This is a resource made available to every high school senior in the state from the Law Related Education program of the NH Bar Association.
Acknowledgements	*The following people have either retired, resigned, or are moving to other positions in the district: Julie Healey Barbara Gamlin Gwen Reed Scott Riddell *Event Planners: I would like to thank Liz Koch and Randy Lacasse for their hard work planning our end of year activities. *I.T.: I am happy to report that we have never had fewer issues with PowerSchool regarding publishing grades. While not 100% issue free, I would like to acknowledge the work that Kevin Federico and Brittany L'Heureux have done to ensure that our grades are accurate.
Updates	*Competency Based Grading: We have finalized the Work-Study Practices Rubric for RHS. Next year, we will be reporting out on these practices and are currently working out teacher expectations regarding these practices. *NEASC: Our NEASC Committees have completed their first drafts of the NEASC Report. During the summer administration will review this first draft. Additionally, we have decided on accommodations for the NEASC Visiting Team.
Challenges	*Ram Time: We are currently working to maximize the opportunities afforded us moving into year two of our schedule. This includes incorporating interventions designed around MTSS (Multi-Tiered System of Supports). Additionally, we are working on developing a schedule that allows teachers to meet and work in PLCs (Professional Learning Communities) for the 2018 - 2019 school year.
