

Attached you will find a copy of the current Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Raymond Education Association and the Raymond School District and the new revised pay scales proposed (as part of the proposed new agreement) for the next few years, along with an explanation of the New Salary Schedules. The current salary schedule is contained in the current CBA (first attachment).

This information goes along with the slides in the presentation that we used tonight; the section regarding the teachers' contract warrant article.